Introduction

Called to the Bar by Gray's Inn, in 1984, and prior to joining St Philips Chambers, in November 2011, Mirza excelled in his 26 years career in local government and is nationally recognised as a top performing lawyer. From 2000 to 2011, Mirza was the Chief Legal Officer and Corporate Director of Governance of Birmingham City Council, with leadership over 800+ staff, and he has been a Member of the General Council of the Bar for England & Wales since 1995 (save for 1998).

Mirza was 'Top Ranked' in Chambers and Partners Legal Directory in 2017 and is in Legal 500 for Public & Administrative Law and Employment Law. He practices from St Philips Chambers in London (at 4 Field Court, Gray's Inn, WC1E 6HB), Birmingham (at 55 Temple Row) and in Leeds (41 Park Square).

In addition to Public & Administrative Law (such as Judicial Reviews, Planning, Commercial Property, CPO, Governance, Fraud / Misfeasance in Public Office, Grants and Public/EU Procurement matters), Mirza has a thriving private practice, which includes giving advice and appearing regularly, as an accomplished advocate, before civil courts/tribunals, appeal courts /tribunals and employment tribunals, as follows:-

Employment Law – for Claimants and Respondents, alike (including experience of being instructed by multiple claimants and respondents) in relation to complex multi-day trials dealing with, for example, dismissals, discrimination (race, sex, disability, harassment and victimisation), redundancies, restrictive covenants and TUPE;

Land and Property – commercial disputes for Claimants and Defendants, alike, in relation to, for example, multi-million Pound partnerships, company and joint venture disputes;

Personal Injuries, Clinical & Medical Negligence – for Claimants (in relation to / against doctors, dentists and hospitals) and for Claimants / Defendants alike in relation to Road Traffic Accidents (including fraud allegations) and Employer / Public Liability claims;

Professional bodies – Mirza has undertaken a number of cases involving members of professional bodies who have disputes with or who seek the Judicial Review / Appeal of professional body decision-making relating to, for example, the striking off from the professional register of members and/ or the imposition of restrictive conditions of practice relating to doctors / nurses; and Direct Public Access – members of the public can save lots of money by coming direct to authorised barristers without going through a firm of solicitors. Mirza is duly authorised to provide expert legal advice and/or representation to members of the public in relation to all of the above areas of work.

Employment

Mirza has a successful employment law practice, which includes giving advice and appearing regularly, on multi-day trials, as an accomplished advocate, before Employment Tribunals in unfair dismissal, redundancy, TUPE and age/disability/race/sex discrimination cases (both, for claimants and employers) and covering multi-jurisdictional matters.

He has also advised and appeared in relation to appeals before the Employment Appeals Tribunal.

Fraud and Allegations of Fraud

Mirza has advised and appeared in a number of multi-track and fast track trials involving multiple claimants and a number of joint trials with other potentially fraudulent RTA claims. He has also been successfully involved in cases involving serious allegations of exaggeration of personal injury claims, which fall short of an allegation of fraud. His Personal Injury practice covers representing clients from both the claimant and defendant/insurance company perspectives. He is happy to consider cases on a CFA or private fee paying basis.

Other cases: Mirza has extensive and successful experience of appearing in and/or advising on complex commercial land and property transactions, including substantial and complex proceedings relating to allegations of fraud against Defendants. Such experiences extend to proceedings before the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber), proceedings relating to insolvency and winding up, and recovery of public grant funding for alleged fraud and breach of conditions.

Discrimination

Mirza has advised and appeared in a number of multi-day Employment Tribunal cases (for and against multiple claimants / respondents and multi-jurisdictional issues) relating to, for example, allegations of discrimination involving sex, maternity, pregnancy, disability or race.

Mediation

Mirza accepts clients for mediation.

Public and Administrative Law

Mirza provides high quality advice and advocacy services (before Lands Chambers, County Courts, High Courts and Appeal Courts) covering the whole range of legal and governance work relating to local government (both, for and against) and include the following specific areas:-

- Judicial Review challenges to public body decision making, Governance and Constitutional matters (including Schools and Academies)
- Land & Property disputes (including joint ventures, Compulsory Purchase and Landlord & Tenant matters)
- Procurement, Commissioning, Tendering and Contracting of public services and private/public/PFY partnerships (including State Aid implications)
- Employment (including all forms of dismissal, TUPE, Equal Pay, Single Status, disciplinary matters, Restrictive Covenants and all forms of discrimination); and
- Housing and Consumer Protection (including Public & Environmental Health).
